Happy New Year!

"O Lord, You revealed Yourself
Amid Sinai's thunder and lightning.

But the still, small voice of Your Law
Is heard above Sinai's thunder,
And Your righteousness shines brighter

Than Sinai's flames.
As we seek to grow, and as we seek to learn
Your truth, Your Law, and Your will,
You reveal Yourself to us anew.

And all the knowledge thus revealed
Is as the echo of Your voice

Which our fathers once heard at Sinai.

And we, like them, make answer:

"All that the Lord has spoken we will do."

O Lord of wondrous revelation,
Reveal Yourself to us!
Open our hearts to Your great love,
Our eyes to the beauty of Your world.

Let not self-love or pride blind us
To the glory of Your revelations;
Let not willfulness erect a wall of darkness
To obscure the splendor of Your kingdom.

May we be ever grateful for the knowledge
Of Your truth and of Your Torah,
So that the teachings of our Prophets

and our Sages
May come to enrich and guide our lives.
May we teach Your precepts to our children
With love and with diligence,

While sitting at home, and walking on the way,
Speaking of them when lying down and rising up."

May the joys of friendship warm and comfort you always.
